

Rommie Lee Sheriff

August 19, 1951 - April 18, 2013

ROMMIE LEE SHERIFF, son of the late Leroy and Ethel Sheriff, was born on August 19, 1951 in Clarendon, South Carolina. He departed this life on April 18, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

He gave his life to Christ as a teenager and over the years he learned to lean totally on the Lord. If you asked him how he was doing, he would say, "I'm alright. I got my hand in God's hand." Rommie never complained. God was his strength in time of sickness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School in June of 1971.

Rommie began working at Southern Galvanizing Company before he finished high school and remained with the company until retirement.

He was a dedicated husband and father. He married his wife, Janice Baker on September 21, 1973 and out of this union was born their son, Marki. They were married thirty-nine years. He loved family, the oldies, wrestling (Friday Night Smack Down) and a good laugh.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Janice Sheriff; his son, Marki Sheriff; his daughter from a previous relationship, Viola; and four grandchildren; his sisters, Jacqueline Brown, Mrs. Mary Shell, Denise Sheriff and Delores Sheriff; four loving aunts, four brothers-in-law, six sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Rommie Lee Sheriff

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family and friends of Rommie Lee Sheriff I send my deepest condolences to you. In the Bible book of Ecclesiastes 9:4 it states: "For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all" which brings out the point that the deceased do not feel pain, sadness, troubles or anything at all as if living--death can be liken to a sleep state of mind. However all deceased persons have the opportunity to live again through the means of Jesus Christ death which gave all mankind a hope. In the Bible book Of Revelation 21:4 it gives the promise of: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." The scripture demonstrates that in a soon time period death will never again occur, no pain of death. I hope that these scriptures have brought you comfort and hope to see your loved one again.

“ 2 Corinthians 1:3-4

May the words of the Lord give you strength... "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:1-3

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
