“ I met Rona when my daughter was a patient at MWPH, in 1992. I found out she was related to my daughter and our friendship grew. I could always count on Rona for a smile and a laugh when times were tough. My heart is saddened by the passing of a good woman, a spiritual woman, a woman of substance and love for everyone she knew. My condolences to the Hobbs and Whitt family. Rona will be forever missed, Especially her smile. May God continue to comfort you in your time of grief and look to HIM for only HE can ease your grief. (Please forgive my late entry I just found out of her passing and I wanted to pay my respect)

“ I was looking at the picture of Rona on the website. She looked so happy. When we look at photos of our loved ones and think of the things we used to do with them; it seems unreal that they are now gone from our lives. I understand your pain and sympathize with what you are going through, because I have been through it many times. I am deeply sorry for your loss. What is comforting to me is knowing that we will see the smiles of our loved ones again and make many more memories with them for all eternity. This eternal promise is something only our loving heavenly father can provide for us. He knows the ways out from death and has promised to swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. May the hope of one day seeing your dear Rona again help you to cope with your loss. Offer up many prayers to Jehovah, because he promises to help you to cope and to give you the comfort that you need to endure. Also, read the scriptures, because they help us to understand why we grow old and die, but more importantly, it tells us of God's purpose to end such things as violence, sickness, old-age, and death forever. May you have peace.

“ ..We do not want you to be uninformed concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you will not grieve as also the rest, who have no hope”

Our family have known Rona since she was born and watched her grow into a wonderful young woman and doting mother to David. We have lost touch over the years but Rona, with her one of a kind smile-you never saw her without that smile-was never far from our thoughts! We are in such sorrow to hear of her passing, her beautiful spirit will be missed by many but our memories will slowly ease our grief. To David and all of Rona's family, our thoughts and prayers and sympathy are with you all today and the days to come.

“ I am sorry for the loss of your mother. She was a very sweet and loving person and she loved you so very much. May you find comfort and peace in god, your family and friends... Psalm 23:1-6
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me besides the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever..... Amen

“ I am so sorry for your lost. The pain of losing a loved one is never easy but we can find comfort from the bible at 2 Corinthians 1:3&4, "Blessed be the God and Father of our lord Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the god of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God." I hope this scripture will be of help to you. Jehovah God is the god of all comfort and he can give us strength when we need it.

*"Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die."
