“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Addison Family, I was saddened to learn of Ronnie's illness and subsequent passing. I have known Ronnie all of my life; he was one of my Uncle "Sonny" Haywood's best friends. Ronnie was my first "boyfriend": always kind, playful and patient with me, and I was always happy when he came to visit. I loved his mustache, eventhough my grandmother would always threaten to "cut it off". I got married on the last Saturday in April in 1970; the weekend of the Penn Relays. My uncle wanted to know why I had selected the weekend of the Relays to get married. Eventhough he and his friends usually made an annual trek to Philly, all of the Suger Hill guys were there including Ronnie. One of my earlest memories of Ronnie was when he purchased what I think was his first car, a turquois and white Pontiac Chieftan. He drove the car to my house for all of us to oogle, and then he took me for a ride. You are already aware that you have lost a wonderful person. I am glad Ronnie was a part of my life too! May God bless your hearts.##imported-begin##Darnelle Street##imported-end##

“ Dear friends and family of Mr.Addison, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. As I looked at the obituary I can tell that Mr.Addison affected a lot of people in a positive way. When we lose someone that is dear to us it can leave you feeling so empty and lonely inside. At times like this you may need some encouragement. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from the Bible. A relationship with Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with the loss of such a special person as Mr. Ronald Addison. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking out your problems with a friend can help,how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help. Notice what the Bible says at Psalms 55:22.....Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter.There is also a brochure entitled "When Someone You Love Dies" that I know will help you to cope with this difficult time. This is a bible based publication and you can get this from anyone of Jehovah's Witnesses. I want to encourage you to read Psalms 83:18 along with these other scriptures that are cited in the paragraph from your copy of the Bible.I hope that you can find some comfort from these scriptures. Take care.##imported-begin##Ava Norton##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##

“ We were fortunate to be Ron's neighbors for nearly 27 years. During that time he was our friend, protector, role model, advisor and good companion. He knew everyone, and had a friendly wave, a warm smile and a positive and optimistic message for all. In our judgement Ron was a classic American husband, father, provider, veteran, neighbor and friend, and our lives are diminished with his passing.##imported-begin##The Donovan family##imported-end##
