

Ronald Alexander Flanagan

March 13, 1963 - November 18, 2003

Ronald Alexander Flanagan was born in Baltimore, Md., on March 13, 1963 to John W. and Mary C. Flanagan. He was baptized at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church where he attended and served as an altar boy. He attended Edgewood Elementary School, Rock Glenn Middle School, and graduated from Walbrook Senior High School in 1981. Ronald joined the U.S. Postal Service in 1988, serving faithfully at the Walbrook, Arlington and Gwynn Oak branches until his passing. He fell in love and married his childhood sweetheart, the one and only love of his life, Pamela Gresham in 1995. Their union produced two beautiful daughters, Lori and Lauryn, now ages 8 and 3. Beloved by all that knew him, Ronald was a trustworthy and caring husband. He leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved wife, Pamela Flanagan; two daughters, Lori and Lauryn; mother, Mary C. Flanagan; sisters, Charlene E. Williams, Shirley Norris and Sherrizan Flanagan; brothers, Ricky and Michael Flanagan; two brothers-in-law, five sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, friends and co-workers. You've been a wonderful husband and father, my partner and dearest friend. I'm so thankful to have shared my life with you. You will always have my heart. Forever, Your Loving Wife You slipped away from us, Daddy, while we were fast asleep They tell us not to worry that your soul the Lord will keep, But this we can't quite understand nor smile as if we're glad That heaven was so anxious to take our loving dad; For we are the ones who need you to hug and kiss each day, To play with us, to teach us, and to take our fears away, But God knows best, says Mommy, and we must learn to trust; That He will provide us with our needs each day from dawn til dust. We love you, DaddyLori and Lauryn

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy. Now and during the coming years, may you find comfort from, "...the Father of tender mercies...the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. John 5:28,29 says: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." and 1 Corinthians 15:26 promises us: "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." It is my hope that these promises give you much solace during this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
