“ I met Ron when I became Baltimore County Commander with The American Legion; he was Post 263 Commander and we became good friends for all the years that followed. He was such a gentleman, always smiling, with a positive greeting and outlook. I will miss him very much, one of the truly "good" people, and comrade. Farewell Ron, rest in peace. May your family be comforted knowing you are resting in the arms of the Lord.

“ My years tenure working with Ron in Division of Corrections Maryland Penitentiary brought closeness as a big brother there to render advice and help when needed. His mannerisms and composure made one see his love taking one on as a little sister than helping to guide the way. He'll always be missed. Our conversation of God was I may not go to church but I know who God is that doesn't leave me. I told him God cares nothing about the building you worship him in He only ask for that soul. That's the personal relationship we as Christians have to prepare oneself to give Him. You'll truly be missed in my heart and spirit and I know we'll meet again. Sis Debbie Regan and family

“ I was saddened to hear of Ron passing. I thank God for allowing our paths to cross many years ago. We met as a result of my brotherhood with his cousin "Lewis"! When we met, we became instant friends. As he said then, "No Question"! And "No Question" his forever smile, joy, and sincere friendship will be missed.
