

Ronald A Benton

August 20, 1958 - January 16, 2025

RONALD A. BENTON was born on August 20, 1958, in York County, South Carolina to Mae Helen and the late Leroy Benton. He departed this life on January 16, 2025, after a lengthy illness

Ronald received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools.

Tree, as he was affectionately known, got his first job as a paperboy. Tree took his role as big brother seriously, often splitting his earnings with his younger siblings. He held several jobs until he retired from Dietz and Watson.

Ronald liked to play basketball and chess. He had a love for many sports that he shared with his mom. He would often call to ask her what position she wanted to play when the Orioles would come on.

He also loved to travel with his wife and friends. He was always the life of the party. He will truly be missed.

Ronald was preceded in death by his son Antonio Benton, father Leroy Benton and grandson D'Andre Yelverton Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Mary Benton; mother, Mae Benton; daughter, Kisa (Pete); stepdaughter, Catina Yelverton; granddaughter, Kuran; great grands, Anthony, Maddison, and D'Andre Jr.; brothers, Tyrone, Jerry, and Tony; sisters, Shirley and Angela; brothers-in-law, Anthony, Rick (Shawnette), and Eric (Candace); sister-in-law, Jackie; a special niece, Ashley; a loving Aunt Doris; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family, and friends.
