“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He not only assures a resurrection for our dear loved ones on a restored Paradise Earth but he even promises in 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ I am saddened to learn of the loss of your dear Ronald. Please take solace in knowing Our Heavenly Father has already made provision to awaken him from sleep (Mark 5:38-43). Jesus tells us of this future Resurrection in The Bible book of John 5:28-29. There it reads in part, " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out...". Ronald will be brought back to a Paradise earth where Eternal life prevails, and sorrow and grief are a thing of the past (Psalms 37:11,29 ,Rev.21:3-4). This is Our Creators' Own promise, not merely a fantasy. May this wonderful hope as well as your treasured memories of your loved one, give you a great measure of comfort, because God always keeps His promises! (Titus 1:2). Mrs. D.
