

Ronald Clark Brown, Jr

March 26, 1961 - August 20, 2011

Ronald C. Brown , Jr. beloved son of Ronald Sr. and Edith Brown was born at Lackland AFB in San Antonio, Texas on March 26, 1961. Being the son in an Air Force family he was raised and educated all around the world . The family lived in Fairbanks Alaska, Washington D.C., Hampton, Virginia, Adana, Turkey, Colorado Springs Guam, USA, Bedford, Massachusetts, Bossier City, Louisiana, Baltimore, Maryland.

He completed his high school education in Louisiana and decided to enlist in the U.S. Navy in 1979. Ronald was proud of his naval career and earned many accolades and honors during his 21 years of service. He attended technical training schools and became certified as a machinist and mechanic. He loved working on helicopters and took pride in knowing everything about all the different aircrafts. His naval career provided him further opportunities to travel the globe. Ron always spoke fondly of his "initiation" as he crossed the equator and the North Pole on Navy ships. His tours of duty were primarily in Mayport, Florida and San Diego, California. He also was a Navy recruiter in Baltimore, MD. Ronald served his country loyally with tours in the Middle East during Desert Shield and Desert Storm. Because of his excellent performance and quality of work and leadership he was offered the opportunity to attend Officer Candidacy School. Ron declined preferring to be active in the field and working on "the birds" as he called them. He was promoted to the rank of Chief Petty Officer in 1998 and was often referred to as “Chief because of his orderly Mannerisms. In 2000, he retired from navy and moved to Martinburg, West Virginia. After retirement, Ron attended tractor trailer school and become employed by USA Cartage trucking company. He loved driving his truck and kept his vehicle in impeccable condition. Again his excellent organization skills were evident in his work. He developed trip itinerary for each job that included estimated departure and arrival times and worked hard to keep to his schedule

Ronald loved spending time with family and his best friend “Jet” of 35 years. Whenever possible he returned home for holidays, birthday celebrations, and other special occasions. He customarily wore the Santa suit and distributed gifts collected near the tree. He would always joke about family members that brought their gifts to the tree on Christmas morning while his had been in place for weeks before Christmas Even when he was out of state or country he would mail them with secret code so no one knew which gift belong to whom. He enjoyed golfing, racing, watching movies, cycling, music especially old school music, the opera, reading , and playing practical jokes, Ron was an avid learner with walth of knowledge in many areas. He loved racing and fast cars and enjoyed watching races and other sporting events. Ron was compretitive in nature and always played hard to win. He even created a golfing trophy for which he and his best friend regularly competed: for that and for bragging rights.

Ron had a kind and loving spirit and was always willing to help and share with others . He belived in the importance of family and making sure that everyone was taken care of. When you visited him he always rolled out red carpet and made sure that your every need was provided for and that you had a most enjoyed time.

He gave his life to Christ at a young age, and attended many churches throughout his travels. He was an active member of Sunday schools, youth groups and youth choirs. Ron had a lovely voice, and enjoyed singing many church hymns, ballads, and karaoke -songs with family and friends.

Ronald also had a serious side that allowed him to focus on tasks and complete them with perfection. He was the epitome of organization and structure, mixed with a fun loving side that brought laughter and joy to all who knew him.

In 2009 he met Lisa Hawk. Their friendship and love grew and they recently wed on August 6, 2011

Ron loved Lisa and they looked forward to spending a life together.

After a brief illness the Lord decided to call him home on Saturday, August 20, 2011 He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Lisa, his parents Ronald and Edith Brown, sisters. Renee Johnson, Robin Brown and Rossalyn Purnell, his best friend and brother Chris Jeter. Brothers-in-law Timothy Johnson, Truet Purnell, and Nicholas Hawk (Tracey), mother-in-law Dolores Hawk, sister-in-law Peggy Jones (Chris) . Uncles James Brown (Doll) and Melvin Watkins, great-aunts Josephine Burley and Elizabeth Evans, special nephews Timothy Jr., Christopher Brittan and A.J. And a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives.

Cemetery Details

Baltimore National Cemetery

5501 Frederick Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21228

Previous Events

Public Viewing

AUG 29. 8:30 AM - 8:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - East Baltimore
1101 East North Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21202
(410) 727-3300
info@marchfh.com

Wake

AUG 30. 11:00 AM - 11:30 AM (ET)

Northwood Appold UMC
4417 Loch Raven Blvd.
Balto., MD

Service

AUG 30. 11:30 AM (ET)

Northwood Appold UMC
4417 Loch Raven Blvd.
Balto., MD

Tribute Wall

“ Ronald Clark Brown, Jr

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - September 06, 2011 at 10:21 AM

“ Ron Jr comes from a family who believed in sharing and showing their love for one another. With his passing a piece our hearts goes with him but the love will continue to grow. God chose to add another star in the sky. Be at peace knowing that he is in God's care.

Amy A. Jackson - August 26, 2011 at 09:37 AM

JB

“ Ron Jr. was always full of laughter. He was a pleasure to be around. He loved his family very much and we loved him too. He will be truly missed. May God grant peace during this difficult time.

Jacquetta Butler - August 26, 2011 at 07:47 AM

AP

“ Would like to share my sympathy for Leisa and her family and also Ron's family. May you feel the presence of God with you. Will continue to have you all in prayer.
Ann Pence

Ann Pence - August 25, 2011 at 06:17 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - August 24, 2011 at 01:24 PM

RJ

When Ron and Lisa attended FPC they had the habit of sitting in front of us. We enjoyed talking with them and how they were doing. We were so happy to know that they were married in August and could continue to share their life together. How saddened we were to learn of his untimely death. When God calls we listen. May Lisa find joy and peace in her memories.
Roger and Nonie Johnson, Williamsport, Md.

Roger and Nonie Johnson - September 01, 2011 at 02:02 PM

PE

My heart breaks for Leisa and all the family. I pray that God will provide comfort and peace in the days to come. Please know how much we care.

Paula Eighenbrode - September 01, 2011 at 03:12 PM