“ Dear Daddy:

Tomorrow marks one year since you decided to take those steps to the other side. I still miss you like crazy. As I'm sure you already know, you have another grand-daughter on the way. She already has her Papa's silliness mixed with her daddy's attitude so I'm sure all of the trouble I got into with you is coming back to me tre-fold. I talk to her about you everyday and when she gets here I will be sure to make sure she sees your pictures everyday. I love you and miss you.

*Your little frog,
Lo-Lo*

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ To Loghan and Crump Family;
Treasurer all the great memories you have of your dad, he was a fun man and I have many good memories of the times we had a Tricia's house and when we all use to hang out with your mom and other family members. Take comfort in knowing your dad is in great hands and we will see him again on the other shore. You know we love you and our thoughts and prayer are with you at this difficult time.

“ My sincerest condolences to the Crump family... Our Heavenly Father never purposed death for mankind. He hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon He will stop it once and for all. (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37: 9-11, Revelations 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw much comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. I hope that knowing this will take away some of your deep sorrow.

“ Dear Crump Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to all mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: "When Death Is Swallowed Up Forever..." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states, "And he (God) Will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope For Dead Loved Ones"? I am not selling anything or conducting any business of any sort, not now or ever. I am just showing Neighborly love like what (Mark 12:31) mentions. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences and my the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not amazed at this,for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
