

Ronald Currin

December 15, 1954 - April 10, 2021

“The time of my departure is at hand, I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course. I have kept the faith.” II Timothy 4:6-7

Ronald Currin, better known as “Ron”, entered eternal rest on Saturday, April 10, 2021 surrounded by his loving family. Ron was born in East Orange, New Jersey on December 15, 1954 to the late Roger and Eva Currin.

Ron attended school in East Orange until the family relocated to Charlotte County, Virginia. He attended Randolph-Henry High School and joined the military right after graduation. Ron loved working. During his career, he worked at Richfood and Lonestar Concrete. He retired from Lonestar and became an entrepreneur and started the Ron Currin Trucking Business. Additionally, he co-owned a tire business on Hull Street in Richmond, and he worked for the United States Postal Service until he retired. Ron had a love for antique cars. He enjoyed refurbishing them and showing them off at car shows. He also loved attending drag races. Ron loved spending time with his family and friends. He gathered family and friends together each summer at Ron’s Place in Sandston, Virginia.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son Ronald Currin, Jr., and his brother Jimmy Davis.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving, devoted wife Dorenthia, daughter Alicia, son Eric, and two grandchildren Courtney and Corvonte; five brothers and one sister; Thomas (Starlene), Lester (Shirley), Eva Nell (Ray), Ross (Mattie), Barry (Stephanie), Rodney (L'Tanya); mother-in-law, Ezie Elam, two sisters-in-law, Cheryl Bacon (Mike) and Ronda Elam; and one brother in-law Vincent Elam (Barbara); a devoted friend, Ronnie Tabb (Cooney), two close friends Mack Peeples and Ron Smith (Bussie), and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. Ron had an unlimited number of friends and he established friendships that span over a lifetime.

“ To the Currin Family:

Someday, not now, and perhaps not for a long while, you will remember all you've shared with less pain and more joy. But for now, may you find comfort in remembering all the guidance, strength and love with which your husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle touched your lives. Those precious gifts will ever live on in each of you.

Remember not the loss; rather the love,

“ *Dobie and family,
Weeping may endure for a night but unspeakable joy comes in the morning knowing that Ron suffers no more. His infectious smile and laughter stayed with him until the end i will forever remember our last conversation he knew this day was approaching but kept that laugh and smile that was definitely his testimony. May Gods grace sustain you all during this difficult time and forever more.*
