

Ronald Dwayne Green

February 8, 1973 - July 22, 2003

Ronald Dwayne Green, son of Jessie and Jacqueline Brown, was born on February 8, 1973 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on July 22, 2003, suddenly. Ronald (a.k.a. Big Green) received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He received his name from the late Ronald Green. He was loved and appreciated by everyone he came in contact with. He was a son to his parents, a lover to his fiancée. A brother to his siblings, and a father to his children, nephews and nieces. He was a friend to the ones who needed a friend. He was an avid Lakers fan. Ronald was a member of his family who everyone enjoyed being around. He would always crack a funny joke about anybody and everybody. He will truly and honestly be missed by us all. Ronald leaves to mourn: his parents, Jessie and Jacqueline Brown; his fiancée, Latonya Jacobs; two sons, Sean and Little Ronald; one daughter, Ronjae; two sisters, Tonya and another sister from Connecticut; two brothers, Keith and another brother from Connecticut; two uncles, Norman and Michael; three aunts, Patricia I., Sheila and Pat both from Connecticut; godmother, Kella Johnson; a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends, including his best friend and adopted brother, Rainy

“ I'm truly struck by an intense emotional reaction. I have only know Ronald for a while, and he was the funniest, and sweetest guy. You have my deepest sympathy, May God bring you comfort. He will always be with you.##imported-begin##a friend from VA##imported-end##
