

Ronald Everette Mason

August 8, 1947 - March 14, 2002

Ronald Everett Mason, son of Marguerite Mason Coleman and the late William Mason was born August 8, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a lengthy illness Ronald departed this life March 14, 2002. He attended the Blessed Sacrament Catholic School. He graduated from City College. During the Vietnam War, Ronald served three years in the United States Navy. Later he joined the Baltimore City Police Force and served approximately three years. Ronald married the former Gloria Dean Bingham. From this union two son, Justin and Randy were born. He was a devoted husband and father who enjoyed fishing and most sports. During his wife's extensive illness, he devoted time to caring for his sons to the best of his ability. Ronald confessed Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at the early age of nine. He served as an altar boy at his church. Ronald was a kind and caring person and made numerous friends. His friends remember how he loved to talk. He will be missed by all that knew and loved him. He leaves to mourn his loving mother, Marguerite; his sons, Justin and Randy; his godmother, Inez Cook; and a host of relatives and friends.
