

Ronald Lee Frederick

March 12, 1958 - March 22, 2016

Ronald Lee Frederick, the son of Delores Boston Frederick and the late Robert Lee Frederick, Sr., was born on March 12, 1958. Ronald departed life on Tuesday, March 22, 2016 after battling with his illness at the VA Medical Center in Baltimore, Maryland.

Ronald was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System graduating from Frederick Douglass High School. Ronald joined the United States Navy where he served as a Radio Man 2nd Class Petty Officer. After leaving the Navy he worked at Service Center, Inc. for seven years and from there he worked at Baltimore Galvanizing Company, Inc. for thirteen years. Upon his departure, he was employed at Redcoats. Ronald took pride in whatever he did. He loved to make people laugh and in his spare time he loved to read.

Ronald was preceded in death by his father Robert Lee Frederick, Sr and brother James Mitchell.

He leaves behind: his loving wife of twenty-one years, Janice Hall-Frederick; his mother, Delores Boston Frederick; daughter, Princessykhia Harris (Edrick) and his stepdaughter, Janine Ross (Jason). He also leaves behind five grandchildren, Diamondmonet, Diamante, Diedrick, Janiya and Jace; five sisters, Diane, Lisa, Denise, Natalie (John), and Patricia; four brothers, Robert (Karen), Russell (Denise), Reginald (Wanda) and Rodney; four sisters-in-law, Karen, Denise, Wanda and Deborah (Robert); three brothers-in-law, John, Larry and Jerry; best friend, Tracy; and a host of other nephews, nieces and friends.
