“ Ronald Harrell

“ You were truly my first love. I remember as a little girl telling you that when I grew up, I was going to marry you. I thank you for teaching and telling me to demand nothing but the best out life. Miss Grownny is what you called me my entire childhood and I lived up to be just that (😁 you know what that means)...I may have my mom's looks but I certainly have your temperament.

It is because of you that I am loving, strong-willed, and stubborn. Although you are no longer here, you continue to teach me beyond the grave, for the biggest lesson you have taught me thus far is to be forgiving. You will forever be in my heart, mind, and soul.

“Daddy, you are my love for music and guitars and fender amplifiers. I will always remember the day I came to play for you and let me use your guitar. The smile on your face as I played will always live in my soul. Growing up, we didn't have much, but we had you, we had music and we had our family under one roof. And on Friday nights, we had the best take out food and best memories of you and Uncle Donald on your knees playing the strings, we lived for that concert every week! In music, you gave me on the best lessons and gifts. You will always live in my soul through music and memories.
