“ To The Family: I send my sincerest condolences to the family and friends. As one who has recently experienced deaths of close family and friends, I know that this time may not be easy. But, you can take solace in the hope that is laid out for us in the Bible. The scripture at Acts 24:15 tells us "there is going to be a resurrection". So, we have chance to reunite with our loved ones in the future. May you find hope in the Bible's many promises.##imported-begin##K Adams##imported-end##

“ To The Family and Friends: I did not know Ronald, but I want to offer my condolences. Isn't it comforting to know that our Grand Creator, Jehovah God will do away with death forever. He tells us that at Isaiah 25:8--“He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it].”). May you find comfort in knowing that God will do away with death forever.##imported-begin##M. Rasaki##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Peggy and Family: Please accept my deepest sympathies on the passing of your dearly beloved son. I do know the hurt you must be feeling at this point and words may not seem enough at this time but one thing you must know is that he is not feeling any pains any more and there is one greater than all us who is there waiting to guide you through all of this. If there is anything I can possibly do for you, please do not hesitate to ask. May God continue to heal you through this time of grief.###imported-begin##Janet D. Tard###imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family. I knew Ron and he was the sweetest and the most polite guy I ever known. He would always smile when I would see him always had a positive thought and love his family dearly. I pray that the family would just trust in the lord that he will bring you all closer to one another. It was a shock to me when I heard the news but the lord always have plans for the best of us. Stay in prayer and always trust in the lord with all thine heart.##imported-begin##Tonya Brown##imported-end##

“ Peggy and Family, I know letting go of someone dear to you is hard, but may you find strength through such a difficult time in your life. As time marches on the pain will lessen but the cherished memories of Ronald will live on in your heart. May your family find healing in God's tender love and embrace, and in knowing that others remembered and cared. "I will turn their mourning into joy. I will comfort them and give them gladness for sorrow." Jeremiah 31:13##imported-begin##Renee JamesGray##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear son Ronald at such a tender and young age. I knoww how you all much be hurting, because my family experienced the same thing 11 years ago when my only son died at a yound age as well. There is no pain like it, to lose a child. But you will see as time goes on that the pain will lessen, and you will be left with fond memories. I also want to leave you with this thought. I have hope of seeing my son alive again, a hope we can all entertain, because Jehovah God promises a ressurection for the dead. He has given all authority to his son, Christ Jesus, to awaken the dead from the sleep of death. Notice what John 5:25-29 says about this: Jesus says: "Most truly I say to you, the hour is coming when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live. "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself, "And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is." Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." This is what keeps my family going; the sure hope of the ressurection, and I hope this is your hope too, because it will come true, because Jehovah never fails to carry out his word. Isaiah 55:11. May the spirit of Jehovah God continue to comfort you, and help you to cope in the days to come###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
