

Ronald O. Fenwick

March 27, 1961 - May 7, 2006

RONALD OTIS FENWICK, son of Roselee Fenwick and Benard Daye, was born on March 27, 1961 in St. Mary's County, Maryland. He departed this life on May 7, 2006 after a lengthy illness. He was employed at Dance Brothers Construction Company for many years where he was loved by everyone. Ronnie was educated in St. Mary's County Public School System. He always loved to talk trash. He was always willing to help others. His famous line was "How much you going to pay me?" "Ronnie," as he was called by everyone, loved to joke and mess with his nieces, nephews and neighborhood kids. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Roselee Fenwick; father, Benard Daye; three sisters, Denise Fenwick, Eloise Peel and Maria Fenwick; sister-in-law, Pam Fenwick; two brothers, John Fenwick and Bernard Fenwick (a brother, Frank Fenwick preceded him in death); (his son Otis Ronald Streater preceded him in death); grandson, Deshaun Otis Streater; six aunts, Shirley Carroll, Merdis White, Theresa A. Brown, Margaret Pitman, Mary E. Morgan and Regina C. Mason; eight uncles, Leroy White, Robert White, Howard White, Thomas Carroll, Thomas Daye, Leon Daye, Samuel Daye, Charles Daye (three preceded him in death, James Albert Daye, James C. Daye and John Daye); best friend, his brother, "Doon" (road dogs until the end); and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ May I take this time to express my sympathy to you all the family. Losing a dear loved one hurts . The bible adds comfort to our lives in many ways. We can have hope for the future of seeing our loved one again. Knowing that the broken circle of death will not always be as Isa.25:8 say , death will be swallow up forever, great news indeed. May these few uplifting thoughts be of encouragement to you all .Sincerely, Lillian.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to your family. May God's promise at 1 Cor. 15:26, to remove our enemy death bring you comfort. Also, Isa. 26:19 says our dead ones will live, they will rise up. I'm sure you would agree the hope of the resurrection is very encouraging especially, when we experience the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in his promises.##imported-begin##SMC##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ronald O. Fenwick I would like to express my condolences to the family for your loss. Death is an unnatural part of life and brings great sorrow with it. We long for our love ones to continue with us forever and that's natural. The Bible can bring us hope in this time of need because Act 24:15 says so very lovingly, "I have hope toward God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Here is a wonderful hope. Jesus Christ at John 5:28,29 said:"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear this voice and come out to a resurrection of life." In better condition than what we see now we will have the opportunity to see our love one again right here on earth. Please except my condolences for your loss. My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##
