

Ronald Singletary

June 28, 1946 - September 13, 2015

Ronnie left us on September 13, 2015 with family by his side at the Greater Baltimore Medical Center. Ronnie was born on June 28, 1946 in Baltimore, MD to Julia Mae Nelson and John Singletary. He was educated at Dunbar Senior High School and later retired from General Motors in 2000. In his journey around his neighborhood filled with friends, he met "The Love of His Life" Felva at one of his friend's house called Calvin. From there his legacy began.

Ronnie's interest revolved around the arts and exploring life with his family at the top of his list. He also coached a basketball team that his sons played on. He loved to work with his hands; he would open his hands and say, "As long as you have these, you can do anything." He was amazing with all his God-given talents and telling many stories to all his family; everyone loved talking to him. He would paint pictures, do handy work and carpentry, to say the least. His day started and ended with a cup of coffee with his favorite music like Stevie Wonder, the O'Jays and Kool and the Gang. He enjoyed being outdoors and anywhere with his family. As he would say, "As long as I'm with my babies, I'm alright."

In his death, Ronnie leaves to mourn; his loving wife of 49 years, Felva L. Singletary; his children, Audrey L. Banks (Rayner), Corey Singletary, Sr. (Rene), and Deatrie Jones (Robert); grandchildren, Taneisha Dorsey, Myisha

Singletary, Mercedes Robinson, She Quise McClain, Makia Green, Corey Singletary, Jr., Lanary Singletary, Trinity Singletary, and Shardy Washington; great-grandchildren, Ymarri Hurst, Ayden Hurst, Aliyah Winder and Aria Dukes; special friends and family, William and Sara Green, Davon Hurst, Michael Holden and William Cox, III; and a host of sisters, brothers, nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

“ Ronnie's Smile, I'll miss the most. I can hear him whisper in my ear. Don't cry for me today. Be strong and SMILE for me today. I know you'll miss me but don't be sad, wipe your tears and remember my SMILE. Ronnie I'll always remember your SMILE. The love you've shown us will always be remembered. Love Joyce Russell & Family.

“ Wow, I'm at such a lost for words. "World's Greatest Dad" is now in heaven. Ronnie, what a great man you were, always answered the call and always stepped up to the plate. The countless stories you shared with me will resonate in my mind forever, all the laughs, and even all the jump shot assistance. Most important, I will always love you for stepping in when I was a teen and being "my dad" too with all the love, caring and guidance a father could give. My deepest condolences to my other family, I love you all so much. May God comfort you all through your sorrows.
