“ My friend Maggie and I knew Wayne from the days of Dulaney Valley inn. He was a great guy and so kind. I've been thinking of him for a while, hoping we would run into each other one day. RIP debonair man.

“ Words can never explain/express our pain. You will be truly/greatly missed from our hearts. You are one of the originals of my husband's (Tidy) friends, the ones I keep/kept close. The Originals (Reds, Cheese, Jazz, Kirk, Rich, Happy, and Fred), watching u all play ball (Cloverdale/The Dome/Kahill/Bo Chez/Chic Webb/Campfield) every chance I got. We would be dancing to Corey's mixes like he was on the radio. It was always a pleasure. Your parents always treated us great. We shared special milestones, when I turned 21/when we got married u were there. Thanks for ALL the memories, u aren't gone or forgotten your spirit lives with us. Much Love, thanks for the years/memories. Missing u dearly.

Much Love,
Mrs. Tidy (Lo)
