

Ronald Smith

September 11, 1942 - November 8, 2001

RONALD W. SMITH, son of the late Willie M. and Olivia T. Smith, was born on September 11, 1942 in Bennettsville, South Carolina. He departed this life on November 8, 2001 after a lengthy illness. Ronald received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked for many years as a laborer. For the past twenty-five years, he worked for the High Steel Structural Company as an iron-worker. Ronald made numerous friends where ever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a devoted family man and a true friend. In 1986, he was united in holy matrimony to Mable G. Carson. In 1960, he joined Whitestone Baptist Church and became a member in the young adult choir. In 1994, he joined First Emmanuel Baptist Church and later joined the senior choir. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mable G. Smith; two daughters, Tonya Powell and Tara Seaton; one stepson, Robert Anthony Carson; (Timothy Carson preceded him in death); five grandchildren; two brothers, Madison T. Smith and his twin brother Donald A. Smith; two sisters, Patricia Ann Hicks and Nettie E. Harrison; four sisters-in-law, five brothers-in-law, two aunts, nineteen nieces and nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
