

Ronald T. James

May 16, 1952 - October 9, 2007

On Tuesday October 9, 2007, God gave RONALD T. JAMES his wings and welcomed him home. Ronnie was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 16, 1952 to the late William and present Marian James. He was a beautiful baby, a loving child, a typical teenager and a great man. Ronald was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon graduation from Edmondson Senior High School, he entered the work force. During his lifetime, Ronald worked as a Nursing Assistant, a Store Clerk and a Custodial Engineer. He enjoyed working with public. Ronnie surrendered his life to the Lord at an early age and later rededicated his life in adulthood. Ronnie was the embodiment of charm, class and coolness. He was an attractive man who loved looking good, smelling good and making those around him feel good. Ronald was a true gentleman. Now in heaven, he can start anew. Ronald is no longer a man, but an angel. His job is to continue to be a servant of God, as well as watch over family and friends in heaven and on earth. Ronald T. James leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Marian E. James; daughter, Carlotta Taylor; sisters, Regina J. White and Angela A. James; brothers, Andre Brown, Jeffery L. James, Kenneth E. James and Anthony D. James. He is also survived by grandchildren and great-grandchildren; uncle, George James; sisters-in-laws, Cherita James and Ella James; and brother-in-law, Robert White Jr. Ronald is also survived by a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. The faithful man Job in the bible was undergoing terrible trials, and he asked the question, "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? From the beginning of mankind"s existence people have longed to know the answer to that question. The bible gives us the true answers to that question. At Job 14,15 it says: "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. "For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Yes Jehovah God yearns to see his servants have life again, and he has entrusted the authority to his Son, Jesus Christ, to ressurect the billions of dead ones who are in the memorial tombs. For John 5,26-29 says: "For just as the father has life in himself so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself." "And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is. "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a ressurection of life." Rest assured dear family, that these promises from God will soon come true, because his word never fails. Isaiah 55,11. So until the wonderful ressurection takes place, please continue to read the bible as a source of strength, and may your cherished memories of Ronald bring comfort to your hearts.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. My husband Joe and I cherish the comfort that we have received from the Bible through the deaths of our loved ones. (Romans 15:4) The Bible reveals a wonderful hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, 2 Peter 3:13 and Psalm 37:29) Acts 24:15 declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
