

Ronald Tillman

October 31, 1957 - December 31, 2014

RONALD TILLMAN (RONNIE), son of the late Patricia Ann Black (Cheta) and Milton Tillman, Sr., was born October 31, 1957. Ronnie was one of five children of the late Patricia Black. Ronnie took his last breath and departed this life on December 31, 2014 at Johns Hopkins Hospital after fighting a lengthy illness.

Ronnie was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Later on he went on to further his education by earning a Certificate from BCCC for Addiction Counseling.

"Ronnie" was affectionately known as "Auggy" to his family members and friends. He was employed at the Port of Baltimore for over 13 years where he was a dedicated employee and a proud member of the ILA Local 333. Ronnie worked hard and put in long hours to earn his senior position at Domino Sugar. He was loved by his fellow longshoremen where he was always willing to teach and share his wealth of knowledge to see others succeed. He was a selfless individual who always wanted to see his family and friends do well.

Ronnie was the proud father of two children: Tirania Rawlings and Ronald Tillman Jr. (Mook) who preceded him in death. In 2001 he married Gloria Tillman. In this union, he gained two stepsons where he was able to share his wealth of knowledge and love for his job.

Ronnie leaves to mourn: his wife, Gloria Tillman; daughter, Tirania Rawlings; son-in-law, Raymond Rawlings; two stepsons, Tavon and Demetric Brown; two granddaughters, Tineria Thomas and Serayah Rawlings; three brothers, Milton Tillman, Jr., Kent Tillman and Raymond Black; sister, Patricia Brown; four brothers-in-law, Gregory Brown, Anthony, Leonard and Bernard Vaughn; two sisters-in-law, Sandra Tillman and Angela Vaughn; a very special nephew, Moe; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and devoted friends.
