

Ronald Vanlandingham

January 18, 1958 - January 29, 2015

Ronald Vanlandingham, son of Lucille Vanlandingham and the late James Vanlandingham, was born on January 18, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland , Due to an untimely demise, he departed suddenly on January 29, 2015.

Ronald was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

He was dedicated worker Harbor Place for more than 25 years.

Ronald was a calm, low -key kind of guy and very easy on the eyes!! All who knew him, loved him. You will never encounter an individual as elite as this one. He was a great father, son, brother, uncle and friend. He was the patriarch of the family and a terrific grandfather.

Ronald was preceded in death by his brothers, James (Kevin), Alfonso and Octavia and aunts and Patricia and Earline Brown.

Ronald leaves to celebrate his legacy: his children , Tyrah Christinia and Ronald, Jr;

a dedicated mother whom. He loved dearly, Lucille; one son-in-law, Daniel (Tyrah) his surviving siblings , Vernon and Derek; grandchildren, Tarus, TyJae, Baby Dan, Tyrik, Tyonia, Keniyah, Kenneth and Adriana; nieces, nephews Damian,

Kia, Davon, Sean, Octavia and Angela whom he loved more like a daughter; aunts Bae, Josephine, Big Glo, Tania and Charlotte; and three very devoted friends, Zelda, Janice and Shelton

“ I used to see Ronald around 8am at the harbor when I was leaving work. We would stand and talk for at least an hour (he must have been goofing off at work). He told me about his new grandbaby's arrival and how well Ronald Jr was doing with work and school. This was a great guy, father and son. We love and miss you Ronald. May you continue to rest in paradise. Ms Lu will be well taken care of.
