

Ronald Washington

May 27, 1972 - July 14, 2013

RONALD "COREY" WASHINGTON was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 27, 1972. He was the son of Ronald Jesse Washington and Carolyn Washington. He departed this life on July 14, 2013.

Corey received his education at Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore City. He later went to Woodstock Job Corps in 1993 where he took up a trade in Cement Masonry.

Corey enjoyed listening to music. He had an ear for all types of music. You would rarely see him without his mp3 player and headphones. Corey was a very loving man who enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. He was always the life of the party making jokes and giving hugs. Corey loved to eat. He enjoyed his mother's home cooked meals and doing anything possible he could do for her.

Corey was employed with the International Ice House for many years. He later worked for Walmart along with other jobs in his trade of Cement masonry and construction. Before his departure he was employed with Berger's Cookies in Cherry Hill which he loved dearly.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two sons, Ronald and Malik; his mother and father, Carolyn and Ronald Washington; three sisters, Kim, Niecy and Shirley; one brother, Rodney; two uncles, Kenneth and Melvin; two great-aunts, Helen and Queen Ester; four aunts, Rose, Laraine, Michelle and Judy; four nephews, Brandon, Dominic, Turell and Kevin; his girlfriend, Christy; childhood friend, Bobby; his best friend, Tony; and a host of cousins, family and friends.

UNCLE COREY Uncle Corey was like no other The brother to my mother, would be cold without any cover, Just to make sure you wouldn't suffer Now in heaven's gym and we see you getting tougher Because they tried to take you under But now you're higher then the thunder That's heaven past the clouds.
Love, Turell, Brandon, Dominic and Kevin
