

Ronda Valencia Bridget

September 13, 1960 - May 2, 2017

"To everything there is a season, A time for every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; A time to plant, and a time to pluck what is planted." — Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

On May 2, 2017, life's book was gently closed for Ronda Valencia Bridget as she peacefully drifted into her final sleep after battling with a lengthy illness. Ronda was born on September 13, 1960 in Baltimore, Md to Brenda Bridget and the late Arthur Bridget.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. "Chipper", as she was affectionately known, was a beautiful person inside and out, and made friends wherever she went. She would help whoever was in need and give when she had it to give.

Ronda really loved children and would take the little kids to the corner store and buy chips and candy and would even babysit sometimes as well. God blessed her with her very own grandchildren whom she loved and enjoyed spending time with. Ronda would take them to the playground, sit on the bench, and watch them rip and run until they tired themselves out, and when they were good she would buy them whatever they wanted. Ronda attended her daily Day Care Center faithfully—it was a highlight to her day. She also enjoyed coloring, crossword puzzles, making jewelry, crocheting, listening to her oldies but goodies, and sipping her favorite, Steel Reserve 211 (in a can) and it better be cold!

Ronda was preceded in death by her siblings, Lavonne and Terrence Bridget and her grandsons, Donald and Derrick White.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Brenda Bridge; sister, Janatha "Peaches" Bridget; two brothers, Dana and Courtney Bridget; sister-in-law, Kijana Bridget; son, Donald White; two daughters, Ronnetta Campbell and Rona Spence; eleven beautiful grandchildren, Rayquan, Donekqua, Diangelo, Danaeja, Cache', Sha'mar, Makayla, Ty'monte, Amiya, Dizay, and Da'kota; special friend, Ronald "Pop-Pop" White; and a host of relatives to include aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and family friends who will miss her dearly
