“ To the family of Ronda Renee Redd:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelation 21:4 " he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.

“ To the Redd Family:

*There's One who knows why you are sad,
There's One who cares for you;
Just look to Him and trust in Him, And He will see you through.*

*He knows your loss and sorrow, He hears your Prayer above;
Each day He freely gives to you the Strength of His Great Love.
May the Peace of God be with You all and May God comfort you in this time of sorrow.*

*Keeping you in Prayer

“ To the family of Mrs. Redd:

I wanted to send my deepest condolences to your family. I was sadden to hear of the passing of this Wonderful Young Lady, Ronda.

May the memories of her help to ease your pain of sorrow.

Please remember that she is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting on the fulfillment of John 5:28 & 29, which states, " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus Voice) & come. out."

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers.

Love,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
