He leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Rodney Curtis; his mother, Annette Hicks; two brothers, Marvin and Donald; his twin sister, Renee; two grandmothers, Almeta Smack and Helen Curtis; one uncle, Rickey Hicks; one aunt, Margo Satterfield; one uncle-in-law, Marlon Satterfield; four nephews, Dontray, Trayon, Davon and Reshad; one devoted stepfather, Twirl; godfather, Phillip A. Trusty Sr.; and a host of aunts, uncles and other relatives and friends. RONNIE Blessings come in many disguises That God alone in love He realizes Ronnie your sickness which we dread so much, Can also bring us a healing touch But, Ronnie on the wing of pain The place we sought we thought was in vain Your death came to us as a surprise We know it was God's mercy that makes us wise. God loaned you to us for twenty-one years So we know we should not shed any tears. Ronnie your sickness cannot be counted as a loss It's just that God wanted you near His cross. Loving you, Ma, Marvin, Renee, Donald and Twirl
