

Ronnie Hugh McKay, Jr.

May 1, 1982 - February 18, 2021

Ronnie Hugh McKay Jr., the son of Michelle McKay and the late Ronnie Hugh McKay Sr., was born May 1st, 1982, in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed his life on February 18th, 2021.

He was the oldest of three siblings.

He received his education throughout Baltimore City Public Schools. While in high school he attended Frostburg State University RMSC program as well as the Black Professional Men Mentor program. He continued his education at Morgan State University, where he was elected Vice President of his freshman class. Ronnie postponed his education to enlist in the United States Army as an Airborne Ranger Special Forces where he received numerous awards. While in the Army, Ronnie received the nickname "Tank", due to his protective nature and his ability to push through any adversity during his multiple tours. After his service, he returned to finish his education at Morgan State University. He attended North American Trade School where he received his Combination Welding Certificate. He later attended Lincoln Technical Institute where he received his AA degree and Certified Auto Mechanic License. Ronnie was member of Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M., of Maryland Patapsco Lodge #183.

Ronnie was very independent at early age. He always wanted to do things on his own, and in his own way. He was very protective of his family. Ronnie always wanted to let you know that he loved you. His smile, energy, and infectious nature could make you smile even on your worst day. He embodied love and positivity every step of the way. Ronnie was very adventurous. He taught himself to swim at the age of five. He loved the outdoors and was big on playing and watching sports. Ronnie had a fondness for the sun. He believed it was his energy and source of strength. Ronnie would want us to embrace the light, always. One of Ronnie's favorite quotes, "family is important; we are all we have, is an important reminder of what meant the most to him.

He is survived by his: two daughters Maliyah M. McKay and Emerald Sky McKay, Michelle McKay (Mother); and one brother Dominique S. McKay Sr. (Shikia); one sister Danielle M. “ Hey dad.. I know it's really late, but i wanted to come on here and make a post and tell you how much i miss you. It's officially been 5 years since you passed which equals 5 years of nonstop grief. My life has never been the same, but i have so many friends and one best friend that i trust with everything. My family and friends keep me going everyday. I turned 13 on January 17 and i wish you were here to see how much ive changed since i was 8. My style, my personality, etc. Im really into kpop, and i know it's probably stupid but its really fun and i love the music. It's just like how you used to watch anime! I have an entire wall full of kpop posters and a lot of albums as well. Honestly, if i wasnt into kpop, my life would be boring as hell lol. Thats all i wanna say for now, but i love you so much and ill see you soon. - Maliyah

“ I’ve known Ronnie for a long time. We met in 2012. I didn’t know he had an obituary page to share Memorie’s until I was thinking of him and looked down his facebook page and seen this link to the website. He was so kind and a great friend. He loved his kids more than anything and was such a kind hearted person. We could talk to each other about anything and he knows me better then a lot of people ever has. I remember telling him I was pregnant and it was a boy and I was naming him Ronnie. Not after him but he literally cried when I told him. That was the last time I seen him and it hurts to know I’ll never get to see his beautiful smile and get a big hug from him ever again. I love you Ron 💔💔💔 Until we meet again 💋

“ Lil Ronnie loved his pastor and always gave the utmost respect. For over 10 years he would come with his family to put up our Christmas decorations. After my husband became ill Lil Ronnie would stop by and visit and check to see if we needed anything. Lil Ronnie has a special place in my heart, I will miss him. Rest well grandson.
