“ *As I knew and worked with Ronnie for 4 years I grew to really really like him. We had some very good crack up belly achen times. I am still in shock as I wondered where my friend was. May you rest in eternal peace my brother, and know that you are loved and will certainly certainly be missed. Peace and blessings to you and your family. “ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is especially sad when death overtakes someone so young. The bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Mr. Bland. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It tells us to "throw your burden on Jehovah...and he will sustain you." You can read these words at Psalms 55:22. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##K Adams##imported-end##
