The Life and Legacy of Ronnie Young

"What I Did With My Dash..."

My dash is the time God allowed me between being born on December 13, 1935 and my entering into eternal rest on April 27, 2011.

I was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and I was my parents's only child. I received my early education from the Philadelphia school system and successfully graduated from high school.

After graduating from high school, I joined the Air Force, on February 26, 1954. I was honorably released from active duty with the Air Force on July 3, 1957. I left the Air Force as an Airman Third Class.

Following the Air Force, I continued to educate myself. I didn't major in anything particular. I guess you can say my minor was in everything and my major was in making people laugh! I could find humor in just about anything, and I had a way of making others see the same. One of my most memorable educational moments was completing the six-weeks Bible program in 1990.

I spent most of my working career at the Defense General Supply

Center(Bellwood). I retired from Bellwood after 20+ years of service. I received a few certificates,awards and recognitions during my tenure there. I played a lead role in heading up our Union. Look at the pictures! Somebody had to stand up for us...(laugh). Following my retirement, I picked up a security guard gig with American Security. My family often called me a "rent-a-cop",because I had to secure the premises unarmed. They asked me,if something were to happen while you were working as security,what would you do? I said,call the police!

Speaking of my loving family,I leave to cherish in my memory,my devoted wife of 36-years,Annette,my daughter,Dianne Johnson,my son Michael Morgan,my granddaughter,Mary Louise Morgan and my great-granddaughter,Ceniya Jones. To my granddaughter,Mary,I want to say that it was a pleasure watching you grow up and become a beautiful young lady and a mom. I hope you will always remember our times together and our family vacations in Myrtle Beach,South Carolina.

To the host of other relatives,family and friends that I have left behind to cherish in the wonderful memories of me..(laugh),remains three in particular. My cousins,Barbara Parham,her husband Alex(Bobby) Parham,and Reagenia Tydings. Thank you three for everything you've done for me from helping me plan an anniversary dinner for my wife,helping me organize our 4th of July family cookout at Bellwood,to being by my wife's side at the end of my dash.

"If a man die,shall he live(again)?All the days of my appointed time will I wait;till my charge come."

Until we all meet again,I pray you will always find comfort in knowing:
"In my Father's house are many mansions;if (it were) not (so) I would have told you,I go to prepare a place for you."

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ Dear Family,
Although I did not know Ronnie personally I can and do sympathize for you and your loss. May you find comfort in the hope found in Rev 21:3,4. Such a joy it will be when we no longer have to deal with losing loved ones in death. May you forever cherish the memories you had with him and use those memories to get you through the tough times like these.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

“ Family,

I am truly sorry for the lost of your loved one Ronnie. Please find comfort in knowing that at 1 Corinthians 15:26 states that " death will be abolished." Revelation 21:3 states that God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Acts 24:15 shows that there will be a resurrection.

“ I'd like to send my sincere condolences to the Young family.

May you draw comfort and strength by reflecting on the precious moments shared with Ronnie. You may also find comfort and hope in our Heavenly Father's inspired words at the Bible book of Revelation 21:3,4. There it foretells what God's Kingdom will bring which is relief from sickness and death. "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

*With Loving Care,
Joseph*
