

Roosevelt Alexander

October 22, 1952 - July 20, 2006

ROOSEVELT ALEXANDER, JR. was born in Baltimore, Maryland on October 22, 1952. He was the son of the late Roosevelt and Ida Alexander. He departed his life on July 20, 2006, after a lengthy illness. Roosevelt was better known as "Pop" by his daughters and grandchildren. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Edmondson High School. Since the age of 14, he worked as a meat cutter at several different established markets, like Super Pride, Food King, Pantry Pride, Basics, Shop Stop & Save, and good old Lexington Market. He worked hard to provide for his family until his retirement. Roosevelt made numerous friends wherever he went. He was well known for having a generous spirit and going out of his way, if he could help. As an out-going person, he enjoyed being around his family, listening to music, and hanging out with the fellows. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Roosevelt leaves to mourn: his sister, Diane Alexander; brother, Howard Alexander and sister-in-law; his daughters, Toya Phillips, Tonya Williams, and Trina Barnett; son-in-law, Derwin Phillips; three grandchildren, Brian, Charles, and Paige Phillips; his wonderful niece, Lachon Curtis who has a special place in his heart in behalf of his long term care; along with his niece, Shannon Curtis, who was always there for him; his loving and caring nephew, Dereck Scott, who was well known for encouraging him; other great-nephews Erin, Kevin, Laquan, Eric; and great-nieces Tytiannia, Shayannia, Tenisha and Telia who cared deeply for him. His nephew, Duron Curtis preceded him in death. He also leaves to mourn: good friends, Joe and Vanessa Davis, Maurice Boyd, Antonio Martin, Flora May Davis, Ms. Jeanette Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, and Sandra Alderman. If you just called on them, they were there to help. Thanks to Nurse Fran, Doctor Shen, and the entire Dialysis Team at Union Memorial Hospital for all his medical care; and a host of other relatives and friends. We thank you all. We all loved him and will miss him dearly!

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends. It it truly sad when we lose our family and friends to our last enemy, death. As a fellow christian, I will pray to Jehovah to give you all the needed strength to cope with the death of your love one. May we all reflect on Jehovah God and Christ Jesus intense desire to undo the ravages of death and make it possible for our dead love ones to be resurrected under peaceful conditions. Yes, it will be a embrassing event.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. Isaiah 33:24 tells us that one day soon, "No resident will say, I am sick." Sadly sickness takes the lives of many, Jehovah has the solution to pain and death. At Isaiah 25:8 he promises to swallow up death forever, and to wipe the tears from off all faces, and we know what happens when something is swallowed up. It's gone forever. So one day death will be eliminated from the face of the earth, and the dead will be raised up. May you be comforted in knowing that you have an opportunity to be with your loved one again.##imported-begin##R

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. John 5:25, 28, 29. Please be assured that God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ So Sorry about the death of your loved one. I too have lost loved ones in death and have found much comfort through God's word the Bible - especially the words of Jesus Christ at John 5:28, 29 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." I pray this scripture will also bring you comfort.##imported-begin##C. JOHNSON##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts you in all your tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##G. Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that our enemy death will one day be destroyed. There is hope of our loved ones being restored to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:4) This is possible because Acts 24:15 declares- "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. During this difficult time, the scriptures prove to be a wonderful source of comfort. Jesus said at John 5:28,29 that "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May this wonderful hope bring a measure of comfort to you and your family during this period of mourning.##imported-begin##S. Sloane##imported-end##
