

Roosevelt Chatman

February 11, 1928 - June 7, 2012

Roosevelt Brown Chatman. The son of the late Robert Chatman and Alice Beatrice Mitchell was born February 11, 1928 in Dinwiddie, Virginia. He was one of nine children. His siblings all preceded him in death. He departed this at Manor Care Nursing Home, Roland Park on June 7, 2012 being tended by his son Maurice.

As a young man, Chico, as he was affectionately called, moved to Baltimore seeking employment. He was employed at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard for 20+ years. He was a hardworking man and a good provider to his family who remained in Dinwiddie, Virginia. Chico later met Gladys Peace who had been widowed. He was smitten by her beauty. Despite Gladys having seven children of her own, he committed to her in marriage. From this union they were blessed with five beautiful children; Roosevelt Jr., who preceded him in death, Maurice, Darlene, Vikki and Michael.

Chico continued to provide for his family in Dinwiddie. Despite his lack of education, he wanted so much for his children to be educated and have a better life than him.

Our most memorable moments were going to the beach in Chico's gray truck, or weekends on Park Heights partying in the back yard. His favorite song, "I'll Take You There" would play on and on and on. In later years, he became a die hard Baltimore Orioles and Ravens fan.

He leaves to cherish his memory; 4 children, Maurice, Darlene, Vikki and Michael; one granddaughter, Christina Dickerson; 6 step-children, Elizabeth, Annie Louise, Abdus Salaam, Anthony, Christine and Ronnie; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of Roosevelt. Even though I didn't know him personally, I would just like to leave you a word of comfort and hopefully it will uplift your spirits until you see his dear face again. Isaiah 25:8 promises that God will soon swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. We all know that when something is swallowed it is gone forever, and that is what he will do with death. 1st Corinthians 15:26 promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Noone else has the power to bring our loved ones out of the sleep of death, and by putting faith in his promises and in the precious blood of his dear Son Jesus, we can look forward to everlasting life.. May you too find comfort in God's wonderful promises.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God has provided a promise for us all. The promise is found at Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes Jehovah promises to do away with all the suffering we face today, how loving and comforting it is to know that.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. The bible though gives us great comfort through the scriptures. At Rev 21:4, it states "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God promises to do away with all of our pain and suffering.
