

Roosevelt Single

February 21, 1931 - October 31, 2008

ROOSEVELT SINGLE (known to his friends and family as “Jeff”), son of James and Mary single, was born February 21, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. He became ill in late summer of 2005 and was in and out of the hospital. Later was confined to Ivy Hall Nursing Facility in Middle River, where God called him home when the road began to get too rough for him to bear. At an early age “Jeff” accepted Christ and often spoke of how the Lord keeps us and His goodness. His favorite song was “Rough” Side of the Mountain.” He attended school at Sparrows Point and later began working at Bethlehem Steel from which he retired. On August 18, 1950 he married Louise White, daughter of the late Robert and Ruth A. White. Jeff and Louise had a wonderful life together fishing, crabbing and going to parties, cookouts, baseball games, the movies and traveling. Both of them were active in their community. “Jeff” leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Louise; two sisters-in-law, Ruth Cole of Baltimore, Maryland and Martha Single of Atlanta, Georgia; two brothers-in-law, William White of Baltimore, Maryland, Tyrone Cole Sr. of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
