

Roquee A. Rowlett

April 25, 1978 - April 19, 2017

Roquee Arsignor Rowlett, 68, was born to the late Earl and Beatrice Rowlett. He was born on April 25, 1948 in Baltimore, MD. On Wednesday, April 19, 2017 he departed suddenly. God in his omnipotent power entered him into eternal rest.

Roquee was educated at William S. Bear school for person with disabilities. He received training as a laborer at and worked for Goodwill Industries in Baltimore, Maryland for many years.

He was loved by everyone that came in his path and had a wonderful sense of humor. Holidays was a favorite because he knew family and friends would get together and we would party and listen to those oldies but goodies, he'd sing Bernadette and when something is wrong with my baby (Sam and Dave) we couldn't shut him up. Eat, drink and be merry he would say for the good times. Even though, he had a little difficulty because of his disability, he would not let it stop him on the dance floor. Growing up he was a devoted brother to his siblings, a loving uncle and trust when I tell you that he kept the kids in line. He was a joy to all who met him and a friend. Everyone who knew him knows television was his joy. He loved watching sports and especially football and basketball. While he watched the Orioles games you had better not make a sound. He is at rest now around the throne of God's grace and now his health condition is healed and our brother fought a good fight even with his disability and even though he did not attend church he had a strong belief in Jesus and knew Him as his Lord and Savior. Farewell Roquee you will be missed by all.

Roquee leaves to cherish his fond memories: four sisters, Earlene DeYoung, Jacqueline Rowlett, LaNae Snowden and Marlethia Rowlett-Smith, two brothers, Algie Rowlett and William Rowlett, one sister-in-law Debbie Rowlett, two brother-in-law Raymond DeYoung and Gregory Snowden and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces' nephews, great-great nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ I knew Mr. Roquee when I was a little girl. He and my father Nathaniel were best friends. He was a really fun loving and good person. And he and my father loved sitting around and laughing and enjoying some music. I was saddened to find out that he has passed on. My sincere condolences to the family
