

Rosa Ann Coles

April 24, 1918 - June 17, 2012

ROSA ANN COLES, was born on April 24, 1918 to the late Edgar and Annie Moore in Wilson, North Carolina. She departed this life on Sunday, June 17, 2012 after a very brief illness.

Rosa attended schools in Wilson, North Carolina. As a young adult she moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Some years later, she met and married Shirley C. Coles who preceded her in death in 1982, out of this union five children were born.

Rosa worked very hard for many years and retired from Johns Hopkins after more than twenty-five years of service.

Rosa loved to travel, dine out and watch Ray Lewis of the Ravens, whom she adored. Another favorite pastime was going to yard sales.

One of the highlights of her life was knowing that she helped to elect our first black president, Barack Obama.

Rosa was a very loving, devoted, caring and faithful mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother to five generations.

She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Ms Ann Starnes, Mrs Shelia Simms and Charlene Campbell; one son, Mr. Stanley Coles (son, Reginald Coles preceded her in death); a devoted granddaughter, Mrs Gloria Ames and husband, Chris Ames; two sons-in-law, Archie Cambell and Lawrence Simms; nine other grandchildren (granddaughter, Shyrell Berry preceded her in death); twenty great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - June 20, 2012 at 09:00 AM

*My prayers are with the Cole family, which is also my family. I am so sorry that I can not be there for you in body, but I am with you in spirit. May God Bless and comfort you in this time of bereavement.
