

Rosa E. Dancy

October 16, 1913 - August 5, 2003

“Well done my good and faithful servant: thou have been faithful enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.” Matthews – 25:21 Rosa E. Dancy was born on October 16, 1913 in Red Oak, Virginia. She was the daughter of Frank and Ollie Gregory. As a young girl growing up in Red Oak, Virginia, she attended the Salem Schools. Rosa moved to Baltimore in 1946 at which time she and Lloyd Dancy were united in marriage. Lloyd Dancy preceded her in death in March 1990. Rosa Dancy’s nurturing spirit extended beyond her immediate family. She worked in the hospital as a x-ray technician. She retired to come home and take care of her husband. She was a faithful member of Southern Baptist Church, where she was a dedicated member of the Usher Board and Pastor’s Aide for many years. Rosa loved to travel. She visited London, Rome and different cities of the U.S. and Canada. On Tuesday, August 5, 2003, Rosa Dancy departed this life and went home to be with her Lord. She leaves to cherish her memory: four nieces, Dorothy Crockett, Elnora Revens, Ollie Williams and Louise Woody; three nephews, Frank Smith, Albert Smith and Isiah Seal; devoted first cousin, Evelyn Ragin who was her care giver a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who were touched by her spirit. Many young people who fondly called her “Miss Rose” loved her.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ From my family to the family of Rosa E. Dancy: So sorry to hear of the loss of your dear one. During your time of deep sorrow, consider this verse in the Bible at Revelation 21:4. It says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes. and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor ourcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Acts 24:15 speaks of a resurrection of the dead. So, there is solid hope of seeing your loved one alive again on earth in perfect health, but under different circumstances. My family hope you find comfort from the Bible as we have. Please accept our condolence.##imported-begin##Ruth Thomas##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. The Bible aptly describes death as and enemy(1 Corinthians 15:26) that will be done away with. Also it gives us hope for seeing our loved ones again- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."- John 5:28,29 May this give you much solace and comfort during this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
