“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us: "There is going to be a resurrection". Also, Isaiah 25:8 lovingly declares: "He (God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you reflect on this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ It has been 2 months and some days since you lost your loved one. Jesus taught us to pray your kingdom come and under that kingdom a resurrection will take place. And there is something that God cannot do-is LIE!We can be confident in that hope. May Jehovah the God of all comfort and truth be with you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). The Bible teaches about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
