“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family of Rosa. Death is truly devastating, and it is so unfair that our loved ones have to leave us. This was never God's purpose, because he created man with the prospect of living forever. Only due to the sin of Adam, is why death entered into our lives, and only through the Christ will death be done away with. 1st Cor 15:22 promises, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." By means of the resurrection, millions will come back to life once again. Jesus made this powerful promise: "I am the resurrection and the life. "He who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." One day soon you definitely have the hope of seeing your loved one alive again, and the reason why I say soon is because bible prophecy indicates that we are living in the last days, and soon Almighty God is going to end this sad world we live in, and bring about a new world of peace. 2nd Peter 3:13. At Rev 21:5 God says, "Look! "I am making all things new. One day a new, paradise earth will be here, and death will be no more. Rejoice in the hope ahead, and may your precious memories be a source of encouragement to you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our "enemy death" itself will be "destroyed". Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us that "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. It's only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl. 3:11). The Bible promises that those in the memorial tombs will come out (John5:28-29) to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalms37:11,29). Continue to draw close to the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during your time of mourning (Psalm55:22). Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
