

Rosa Mae Chandler

November 20, 1921 - January 14, 2003

Rosa Mae Chandler, daughter of the late Gertrude Parks and Jim Cox, was born November 20, 1921 in Atlanta, Georgia. She married Andrew Chandler on December 25, 1940. She departed this life on January 14, 2003 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in Georgia. She was employed at Sheppard Pratt Hospital where she worked for many years before retiring in 1987. She served on the Usher Board and Pastor's Aid. She also was in the Golden Angel Marching Band. In her community she helped many people in her lifetime. Many people who knew her will miss her. She leaves to mourn: daughter, Catherine Surles; one granddaughter, Patricia Surles; one great-granddaughter, India Dehaney; goddaughters, Barbara Carter and Carol Johnson; one brother-in-law of New York; one sister-in-law of Atlanta, Georgia; a host of nieces, nephews and friends, including a devoted friend, Elizabeth Sewell.

Tribute Wall

“ Rosa Mae Chandler

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Rosa Mae Chandler

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The good Lord understands what it is you're going through, and He's the One who best knows how to comfort and care for you. So we're praying that He'll always be close, both now and in the future, too. God Bless you and Your Family###imported-begin###The March Family and Staff###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Deepest sympathy to the Chandler family. Your loved one had a quiet and kind spirit and mostly spoke with her warm smile. Please know that, "Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal." And to that I add, "Greetings from her Southern Baptist Church family."###imported-begin###Roger N. Evans###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM