“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21;3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). May these words bring you a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Clements' family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can be very painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy". But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of a resurrection by stating:"many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
