“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The bible lets us know that one day death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. the former things will have passed away. Rev.21,4. Also Act 24,15 lets us know that there will be a ressurection. May the thought of one day being reunited with Rose bring joy to your heart, and comfort to your soul.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
