

Rosa Mae Maynor

January 14, 1944 - December 29, 2010

ROSA MAE MAYNOR, daughter of the late Samuel and Ester Hart was born January 14, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Rosa was called home to be with the Lord on December 29, 2010. Rosa received her education in the Baltimore City public schools. She graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School. She then attend the Nursing Program at Howard Community College graduating at the top of her class with honors. In 1975, Rosa met her friend and soul mate James, who she married in 2005.

Rosa had a passion for caring for others and felt the need to pursue her career as a Psychiatric Registered Nurse. She received several awards throughout her Nursing career. Some of the awards included the Governor's citizen citation for thirty years of outstanding service, an award for faithful service to the people of Maryland and recognition from the state of Maryland for over 25 years of dedication to the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. She was an active and faithful member of the Good Sheppard Baptist Church until her health started to deteriorate in 2005. Rosa was a dedicated nursing professional at numerous facilities in the state of Maryland. In 2005, she retired from Crownsville, Spring Grove and the University of Maryland Medical System-Walter P. Carter Center.

Following retirement, Rosa found enjoyment in spending more time with her family and especial her great-grandchildren. They were her pride and joy. Rosa leaves to cherish fond memories: her beloved husband, James Dyson, one daughter and son-in-law, Debra and Rodney Bailey, one son, Robert Davis. Rosa also leaves a brother, William Battle, one aunt, Calena Highsmith, one brother-in-law David Carmicheal, and the entire Dyson family. Rosa also leaves her five grandchildren: Barbara Bailey, Charnetta Bailey, Robert Bulter, Antonio Davis, and Latonya Davis; nine great-grandchildren: Yemani, Tyauna, Zee, Tyah, Lil Mama, Lay-Lay, Azariah and Diamond; her best friend Patrica Manigo, a devoted niece, Cookie and a host of relatives and friends.
