

Rosa Pendarvis

November 24, 1924 - February 27, 2002

Rosa Pendarvis, a daughter and one of twelve children bore to the late Tommie and Glendora Booker. Rosa was born on October 27, 1924 in New Canton, Virginia. She departed this life on February 27, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Cumberland Training School in Cumberland, Virginia. Rosa moved to Newark, New Jersey in 1944 and remained there until 1969. Rosa spent the majority of her working career at Little Falls Laundry and Dry Cleaning Company in Little Falls, New Jersey. She relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1969 where she remained a resident until her passing. Mama Rose, as she was affectionately called, made numerous friends and will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to mourn: her life long companion, Larry Green; three sisters, Augustine Peterson of Bronx, Delores Andrews of Inglewood, California, and Olga Conyers of Austin, TX; two brothers, Joseph Booker of Linden, New Jersey, and Burley Booker of Powhatan, Virginia; two brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
