“ "Farwell Friend"

*I wrote this poem in loving memory of a dear sweet woman much like a childhood mother to me.
I can STILL see her face and hear her voice, echoing in heaven now saying "I love yall" remember always take care one another.
I will definitely miss her charming way and pretty smile Inviting only her close friends to sit on the porch , " Baby it alright come on the in house stay awhile",
She was all about family she took good care of the ill ones i n the Creighton neighborhood, raising two daughters of her own, Shavita and Tequila
she never slept the truth under the rug her house was always a home Congratulations Rosa Washington AKA Pooche
You making it in, Farwell for now rest in peace my dear sweet friend .*
