

Rosa Mae Wright

February 19, 1949 - October 11, 2013

Rosa Mae Wright was born in Richmond, Virginia to the late Rosetta Johnson and Ulysses Harris on February 19, 1949. She departed this life, October 11, 2013 at home surrounded by her loving family. Rosa Mae was preceded in death by her husband, Joe L. Wright Sr.; mother, Rosetta Johnson; father Ulysses Harris and two brothers, John D. and Frank E. Johnson.

Rosa was lovingly known to many as Mae. She was a loving and devoted friend to many. Mae grew up in the Fulton area of Richmond and attended Maggie Walker High School. Mae loved to cook for her family and friends whom she cooked for every Wednesday and Sunday. If you needed a place to sleep she would tell you to “come on over, I will make room some way some how”

Mae worked for the Richmond Volleyball Club and Padows Ham and Deli until becoming ill due to cancer. She loved working and laughing with the members of RVC. Her RVC family loved her just as much, especially when she would yell “popcorn ready.” Padows was like a second home to her, she would light up when she spoke of the different people she would meet there. Mae even found a long lost brother, Ricky Sims, and a few sets of grandparents.

She leaves to cherish her, two daughters, Shonda and Kim Wright; son, Joe L. Wright Jr.; 10 grandchildren, Kevin, Keishonda, Kayla, Carlique, Jayden, Jaylen, Jayla, Kayden and Iyana, one great-grandchild, Kameron; two sisters, Mona L. Baker and Elizabeth Hargrove (Lenioda Sr.); brother, Frederick Johnson Sr. (Hollie); adopted daughter, Lat'e Eddleton; sisters-in-law, Sylvia Johnson, Leslie Johnson, and Ethel Wells (Leon); brothers-in-law, Charles Wright (Charlotte) and Stanley Wright, devoted aunt, Mildred Jackson and friends, Doris Johnson, Phyllis Washington, as well as William and Margie Thomas, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Rosa Mae Wright:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
