

Rosalee Kane

June 3, 1930 - December 24, 2024

ROSALEE COLE KANE, born on June 3, 1930, departed this life on December 24, 2024. Rose as she was affectionately known was the youngest child of Ella Collins and William Cole. She was preceded in death by William Cole her brother and Mary Cole her sister.

Rose was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland. She graduated from Carver High School in 1948. In 1950, Rose married Howard Kane and from this union three girls were born; Maria Antoinette Kane, who preceded her in death, Pamela Bernadette Kane and Deborah Cecelia Ward.

Rose attended night school where she learned typing and stenography. She then began a 30-year career with the District Court for Baltimore City.

Rose always had a keen eye for fashion and took great pride in her looks. Often asking the grands “did you look in the mirror this morning,” even if they said “But Mom mom this is the style”. She took great care of herself by going to the spa daily. She enjoyed life, traveling often, hosting family holiday dinners and get togethers. She enjoyed dancing and good food. She loved watching football but loved her O’s.

Rose was an active member of St. Bernardine Catholic Church, volunteering in the food pantry and helping with holiday baskets for those in need. Rose also volunteered at the Franciscan Center for a number of years.

Rose leaves to mourn: two daughters, Pamela Bernadette Kane of Baltimore City and Deborah Cecelia Ward of West Palm Beach, Florida; four grandchildren, Monica Renee Smith, Gerard Aloysious Kane Smith of Atlanta, GA, Trinita Maria Kane of Baltimore, MD and Tiffany Marie Ward of West Palm Beach, FL; three great-grandchildren, Gabriel Alexander Smith, Olivia Maria Smith and Trintan Abednego Kane-Epps all of Baltimore, MD; two nieces, Jackie Jeffries and Vanessa Deal of Baltimore, MD; and a host of cousins. She also leaves to mourn one very special and dear friend of over 70 years, Maglene Pannell.
