“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family for the loss of your Rosalee. I know your hearts are heavy, because the death of a loved one is the hardest thing we have to bear in life. We miss them so very much. Jehovah God is the God of tender mercies and comfort, and he cares so much about us; especially when we are in pain. Very soon, he promises that death will be no more. Isaiah 25:8 says that he will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." One day, no more sorrow, no more tears. Daniel 12:2 also tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Jesus will call, they will answer, and will wake up from the sleep of death. May those thoughts from the bible strengthen you in the days ahead, and may your wonderful memories of Rosalee help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hi ! Mayes! May a peaceful and restful day be yours. Losing a dear one can leave a huge pain in the heart. We may have some time about death that needs to be answered. The bible has all the answer as 2Tim.3:16-17 tell us that "All Scripture is inspired of God and beneficial for teaching that the man of God may be fully competent, completely equipped for every good work." May the comfort needed to keep going on be found in the bible. Sincerely. Crosby.##imported-begin##Crosby.##imported-end##
