“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Sorry to hear about your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 assures us that " The last enemy death" will be destroyed. What about our loved ones who have died? Acts 24:15 promises- "there is going to be a resurrection." May these divinely inspired promises comfort you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. The scripture at Isaiah 26:19 says “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]. I hope you will find comfort in this scripture knowing that you have the opportunity of seeing your dead loved one again.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
