

Rosalie Cecilia Fair

August 15, 1930 - April 8, 2002

Rosalie C. Fair, daughter of the late Howard and Missouriia Savage Gibson was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 15, 1930. She departed this life on April 5, 2002 after a lengthy illness.

Rosalie attended St. Peter Claver Elementary School and St. Francis Academy, both located in Baltimore. She was employed with Commercial Credit Corporation and retired in 1987. She also served as a chief election judge with the Baltimore City board of Elections for several years.

On August 11, 1950, Rosalie was joined in holy matrimony with JT Fair and from that union there were seven children. Rosalie was very active with organizations that performed community service and mentored young people to include the Girl Scouts of America-Troop 1488, the St. Peter Claver Ladies Auxiliary, and the Order of the Eastern Star, along with several other church and community civic groups. She loved opera and classical music, as well as traveling.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Veronica, Arlene and Audrey; four sons, Jerome, Arnold, Joseph and Warren; three sisters, Margaret, Bertha, and Audrey; three daughters-in-law, Linda, Marcia and Bessie; one son-in-law, Charles; three brothers-in-law, James, Johnny, and George; two sisters-in-law, Helen and Joyce; sixteen grandchildren, six great grandchildren, many nieces and nephews plus a host of other relatives and friends. My Dear Children: If and when I must leave you for a little while, Please don't grieve and shed wild tears

And never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you up in the sky.

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
