

Rosalie Rhodes

February 20, 1929 - February 15, 2019

Rosalie Rhodes was born to the late Wesley White and Sallie Watts White on February 20, 1929 in Lee County, South Carolina. She entered into eternal rest on February 15, 2019.

Rosalie was affectionately known as “Rosa” to all who knew her. Rosa was the last surviving sibling of the White children. She was educated in South Carolina Public School System. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ and was baptized at Union Baptist Church in South Carolina.

Rosa relocated from South Carolina to Washington D.C. to live with her oldest sister. In Washington, D.C., Rosa met and married the late Issac “Junior” Rhodes. Rosa and Issac moved to Niagara Falls. From this union, they had no children. Eventually they moved from Niagara Falls to Baltimore, MD to be close to her family. While living in Baltimore, she joined Saint Abraham Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Clarence Yerby. She served at Saint Abraham Baptist Church until her health prevented her from participating.

Rosa did domestic housework for years and was known for her southern cooking, especially known for her baking skills (coconut cake). She also enjoyed attending gospel quartet singing.

Preceded her in death are her siblings: Leola (Hammie) Boykins, Addie (Benjamin) Nickens, Annell (Harry) Haynesworth, Ruby (James) Carroll, Annie England, Daisy Bradford and Wesley White, Jr. Also preceded her in death, a devoted friend David Whitfield.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister-in-law, Mazola White; three devoted nieces, Lillie (James) Robinson, Sallie (Raymond) Barnes and Addie (Robert) Anthony; devoted nephew, Arthur (Idella) White; and a host of other nieces, nephews and relatives.
