

Rosalind D. Lunsford

November 22, 1963 - May 10, 2025

Rosalind Denise Lunsford officially known as "Roz" or Aunt Roz was born in Durham, NC on November 22, 1963, to the Late Louis Lunsford and Geraldine Fuller Lunsford of Durham NC. Roz attended Durham County Public School System. Roz was known in her teenage years as a dancing machine none of siblings could beat her. In her adult years, Roz was the active family babysitter there wasn't a child she didn't watch, fed, or spanked. Roz household was always full of Life, Family, Children and Love. There was always a place to lay your head. In 2018 Roz moved to Baltimore, Md. for a opportunity and better healthcare. Roz obtained her G.E.D. at Baltimore City Community College. Roz became a security officer following the path of her favorite niece helping her with her company "Swat Team Protection." Roz was dedicated and loyal she was known as the "Pat Down Qween." She was always a youth mentor for the YDMS where she gained a host of nephews and nieces. Roz also obtained her med tech certification in 2024. Despite her health difficulty Roz never forgot to give God Credit in Any Situation. Roz favorite saying was "Baby God will always show you what you need to see." Roz will be truly missed and she will never meet a stranger that she hasn't taken under her wings and considered them family. Our hearts and minds will hold her memories forever. She will always be remembered as auntie, sister, cousin, niece, friend and bestie to us all. Rosalind is proceeded death by two sisters Valerie and Glenda Lunsford. Survived by two sisters Amelia Lunsford of Durham, NC and Athelia Lunsford of Parkville, MD. one brother Darryl Lunsford of Durham, NC, one sister-in-law Gretchen Lunsford of Durham NC, two sons Courtney of Parkville, MD and Robert Lunsford of Durham, NC. Two grandsons Yamir Gadberry of Winston Salem, NC. and Courtney Lunsford, Jr. of Parkville, MD one special niece and caregiver Jazlyn Santana of Parkville, MD and a host of nephews, great-nephews and great-nieces.
